TXR 1925

Contract Addenda & Related Forms

What this form is for

Designed as memorandum of Buyer's decision to or not to: have the property inspected, have the property reinspected after repairs, purchase a residential service contract, "walk through" the property prior to closing, or visit and review the property in person. It is suggested to use the form after any required repairs have been completed and shortly before closing. The form may be used in all types of transactions. If any required repairs are not yet complete, the buyer should not sign the form and the parties should determine how the incomplete repairs will be completed or if the contract should be amended.
