Contract Addenda & Related Forms

What this form is for

Lenders are required to provide this form to prospective homebuyers at first contact, be it pre-qualification, pre-approval, or at the time of initial loan application. In any case, the lender must provide the form to the prospective homebuyer no later than at the time of initial loan application. The form must be provided on all transactions that will involve FHA mortgage insurance on an existing property. (The form need not be provided in transactions involving proposed or new construction.) The form does not need to be signed by the buyer. It advises buyer of importance of home inspection.
