Residential Tenant Estoppel Certificate

TXR 2228

Property Management

What this form is for

The tenant certifies that the statements in the certificate are true. Statements in the certificate refer to matters such as the lease term, current rent, any breaches, and other rights or obligations of the party under the lease. The certificate is typically delivered to a lender or prospective lender of the property. Delivery of estoppel certificates may be a requirement of a seller under a contract to sell.

Key sections and how to complete the form

Use the form in order. The sections below explain the main decisions, blanks, disclosures, or deadlines the form is designed to address. Complete the actual form from the transaction facts and the instructions printed on the current version.

Property and party information

Identify the correct property and the person making the disclosure or certification.

Complete the factual statements and elections

Answer each applicable question or checkbox from the signer's actual knowledge and the records available to that person.

Attach referenced records

If the form calls for reports, leases, association documents, or other records, deliver the referenced material with the form when required.

Acknowledgment and signatures

Complete all required acknowledgments, dates, and signatures so the file shows who provided and received the information.
