Notice of Non-Rent Breach of Lease

TXR 2231

Property Management

What this form is for

May be used by property manager or landlord to notify a tenant of the tenant's breach of any other provision of the lease (not financial). Though not required, this form gives the tenant an opportunity to cure the listed breach and is therefore not to be used as a notice terminating tenant's right to occupy the property. To satisfy requirements of Texas Property Code Chapter 24, this form should be used in conjunction with TXR 2208.

Key sections and how to complete the form

Use the form in order. The sections below explain the main decisions, blanks, disclosures, or deadlines the form is designed to address. Complete the actual form from the transaction facts and the instructions printed on the current version.

Identify the agreement and parties

Make sure the notice references the correct property, agreement, sender, and recipient.

State the triggering event or election

Complete the portion of the form that identifies why the notice is being given and any date or deadline stated in the form.

Delivery matters

Keep evidence of how and when the notice was delivered because rights and deadlines may depend on delivery.
